

Newsletter February 2019 – Baby Room

Upcoming Events:

World Book Day: Thursday 7th March

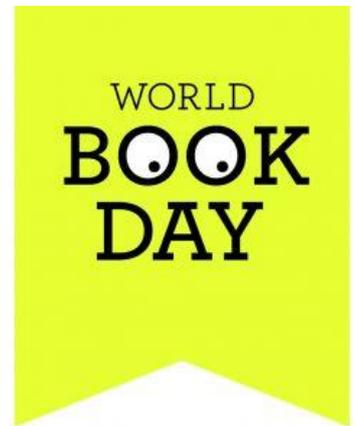

To support this event we are inviting all children to dress up as a book character for the day. We would also like all children to bring in their favourite story during the week commencing 4th March when we will be holding regular story sessions where children can 'show and tell' their favourite story.

Red Nose Day: 15th March

For this event, everyone is invited to wear something red to nursery. We will also be conducting a bake sale, where children will be making biscuits and cakes for all of the parents/carers at the end of the day. Donation buckets will be available throughout the nursery. For more information please see: www.rednoseday.com

Mothers Tea Party: 29th March

Sunday 31st March is Mothers Day and we would like to invite all mothers and grandmothers to tea party the following Friday at 4pm on Friday 29th March. Tea, coffee, sandwiches and cakes will be provided and guests are welcome to stay and play after tea. Please let us know if you are able to join us. Also, if any one has any allergies or intolerances please let a member of staff know so we can ensure these are catered for on the day.

Please don't forget to:

- Bring in hats, gloves, scarf's, wellies, waterproof suits (if possible) and slippers, thank you.
- Check Tapestry (and post observations from home too 😊)

Daisy Dog's Adventures

Last month, Daisy Dog spent some time with Sienna. It was Sienna's birthday so Daisy celebrated Sienna's 3rd Birthday with her. Daisy also got to meet all of Sienna's family and they also took Daisy shopping so she could help Sienna choose some new shoes!

Daisy Dog can't wait to go home with another friend now and start some new adventures!

Foods from around the World

This month we will be tasting foods from China. You are welcome to share any recipes you may have with us.

Welcome!

We would like to welcome
Octavian to the Baby Room!

Happy Birthday to:

Hifza and Dawn

We hope you have a lovely birthday!

Staff News and Training

We are pleased to announce that Hifza is expecting her first child with her husband in March. Hifza's last day before she goes on maternity leave will be Friday 8th March. We will keep you updated with any staff changes in the near future.

Sam also renewed her Paediatric First Aid and First Aid at work Training.

Policy Document Reminder

Each month we re-issue copies of policies from our policy and procedure document for parent's reference. This enables parents to review any changes or updates which may have been made. Please find attached a copy of our Behaviour Management Policy for your information.

This policy aims to promote, encourage, reinforce and reward positive behaviour, enabling children to develop a sense of appropriate behaviour and positive self-image. Nursery staff must employ a consistent approach to behaviour management and develop effective strategies using positive methods appropriate to the individual child. Children's behaviour must be managed effectively and in a manner appropriate for their stage of development and particular individual needs.

Inappropriate Behaviour

Inappropriate behaviour invariably occurs when a child's fundamental needs are frustrated. Staff should always consider what the child's needs are and how they can best be met.

The nursery has its own expectations of the children within its care based on safety issues, a sense of right and wrong and care and consideration for other people and possessions.

Consistent Approach

Th pr sh ad Nu	Christmas Opening Times A reminder that the Nursery will be open throughout Christmas; however we will be closed on the bank holidays, this includes Monday 26th December, Tuesday 27th December and Monday 2nd January. In order to plan and provide meals we would be grateful if parents could inform us if their child is likely to be off during the Christmas period by completing the attached form, speaking to a member of staff or emailing the nursery at: daisynursery@aol.com . Thank you.
--------------------------------	--

Children need to be taught rules about functioning in a group. Young children are very egocentric and much of what society deems acceptable, e.g. politeness, honesty, consideration for others, has to be learned. Practitioners need to let children know what is required of them by showing them how and why things are done. Any directives issued should be clear and concise. Staff will not use the word 'naughty' or raise their voices. Children need to observe good behavioural models and then copy activities such as sharing, taking turns and listening.

Where possible undesirable behaviour should be ignored.

Individual Attention

Physically removing children from a situation can stop undesirable behaviour by giving the child time to think away from the situation. Such time out should be brief.

Incident forms

If undesirable or inappropriate behaviour results in an incident, then an incident form will be completed for all children involved. This will record the time, date and circumstances of the incident and how the incident was dealt with. An incident form will also be completed on any occasion whereby physical intervention is used.
